1. Working Group on the History of Media Studies

The Working Group is taking a summer hiatus. The next remote session devoted to discussing published works and members' working papers will be in September. Hosted by the Consortium for History of Science, Technology and Medicine (CHSTM). Open to anyone interested in the history of the media studies fields. Instructions to join are here.

2. Conferences, Calls & Announcements

If you have a call or announcement relevant to the history of media studies, please contact us.

1. CFP: The Future of the Field: Past, Present, and Future of Communication Research in Ibero-America

- RAEIC, Revista Española de la Asociación Española de Investigación de la Comunicación, invites proposals for articles for its upcoming issue on "The Future of the Field: Past, Present, and Future of Communication Research in Ibero-America," which will be published in October 2023. Studies on communication research in Ibero-America have traditionally been an inexhaustible source of evidence documenting the origin and evolution of the field, dominant scientific patterns, and the impact of Ibero. In recent decades, this line of research has been consolidating, largely thanks to the structured efforts, but also the voluntary efforts, of many researchers from different traditions and sensitivities. In this context, it is interesting to revisit the ferment of our field, critically analyze what has brought us here, and consider the expectations and practices with which to anticipate the future....
